The Adventures of PETER WHEAT

THE VILLAGE OF
THE WHEATFIELD
FOLK WAS DESTROYED
IN THE FIRE SET BY THE WICKED WIZARD
AND HIS HORNETS.

PETER AND HIS FRIENDS ARE HARD AT WORK REBUILDING
THE HOMES.

Bring the materials
here, men.

We need more logs
for rafters and framework, Peter.

Beetle, you and Sammy take charge. I'm going to find out what has happened to our supply of logs.

Aye,
Peter.

Maybe this water hole connects with the river - We could try to dive and swim out.

I'm afraid I couldn't hold my breath so long.

Stones dislodged from above -- - Somebody must be up there!

Somebody is up here -- - Who are you?

It's the voice of the Mole! Mole! It's Peter Wheat and the Turtle down here!

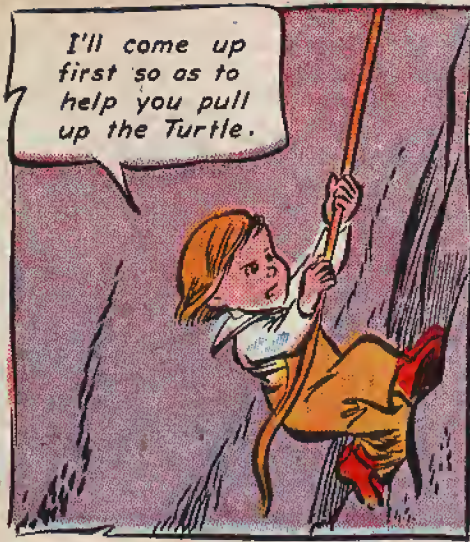

Peter and Turtle! Bless my soul! I'll toss a rope to you!

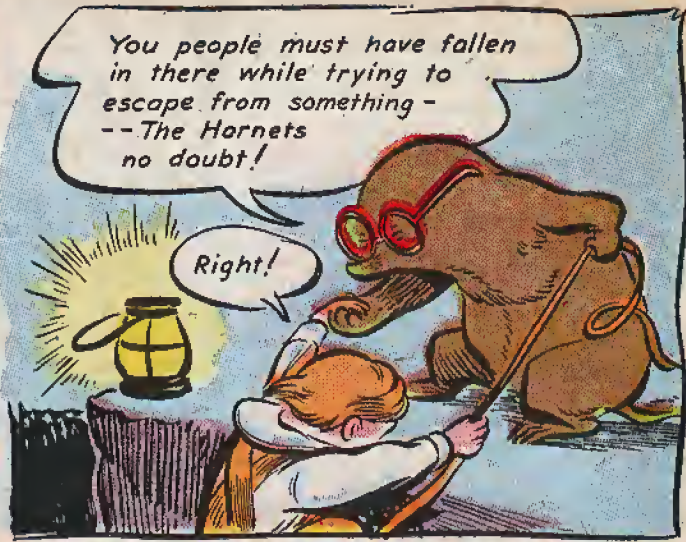

I was resting in my underground chambers and heard voices.

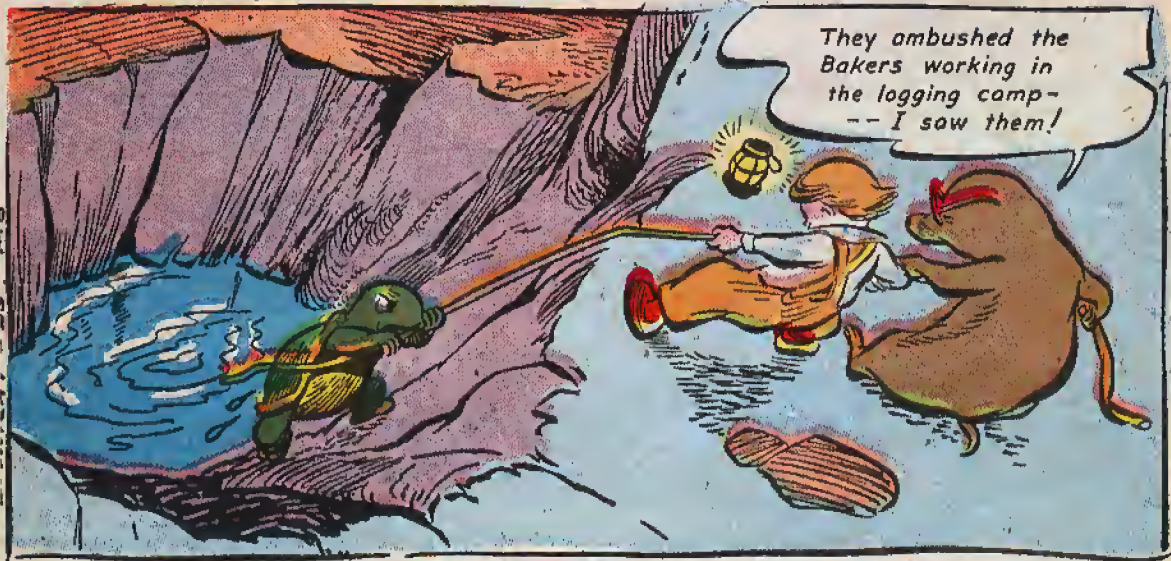

I'll come up first so as to help you pull up the Turtle.

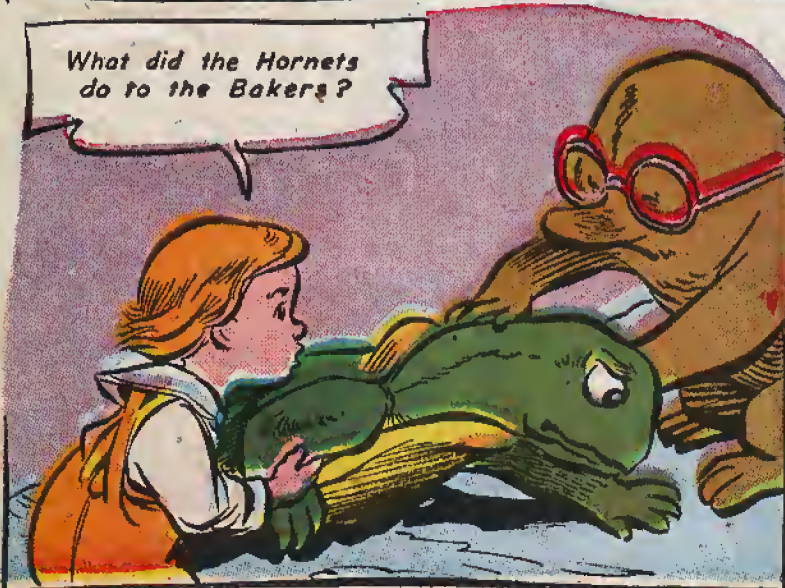

You people must have fallen in there while trying to escape from something - -- The Hornets no doubt!

Right!

They ambushed the Bakers working in the logging camp - -- I saw them!

What did the Hornets do to the Bakers?

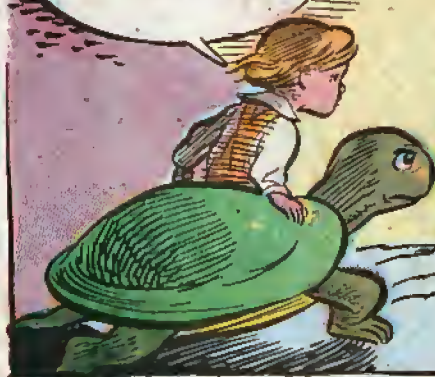

Nothing harmful - -- Tricked them into the cooking cabin and locked them in.

So that's why the logs are not coming down the river!

If you can lead us out, we'll be able to free them.

Aye --- This way.

They've disappeared completely - We've looked all over for them.

They must have gone into the Mole's tunnel inside the hollow tree.

Aye!

That's it! And, if so, we've got them!

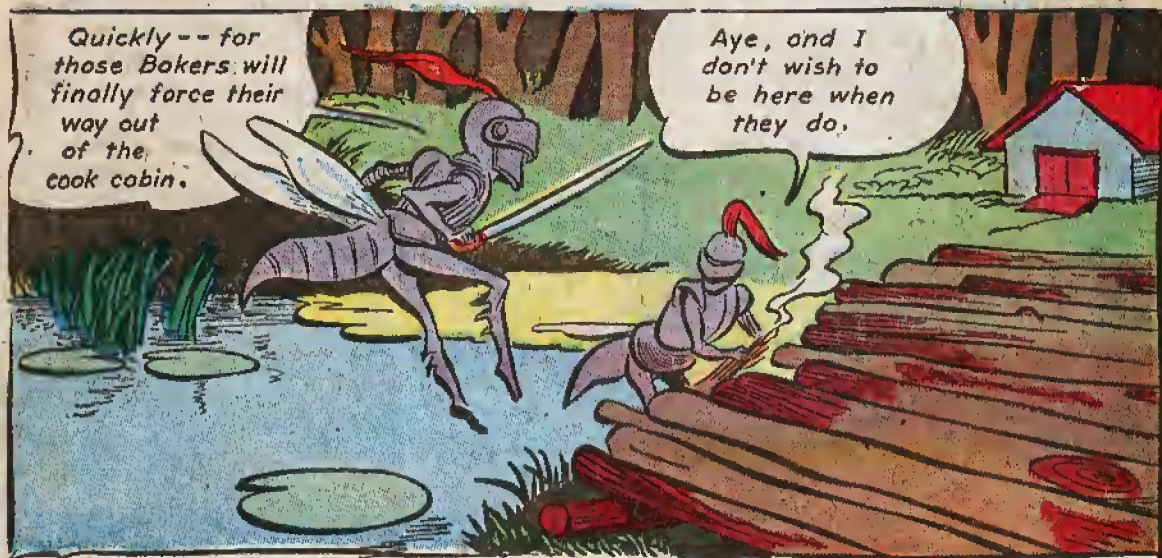

What can we do?

I'll go to the other entrance of the Mole's tunnel --- I'll change myself to a Dragon and go in and get them!

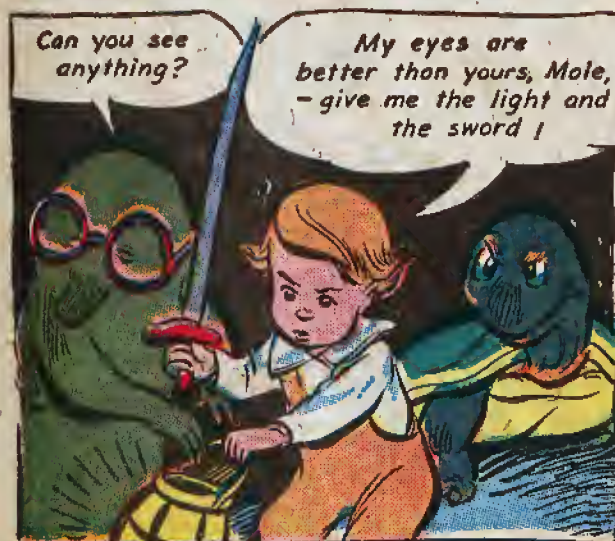

Now if I can just stay
as little as this -- so I can crawl into the burrow.

The trouble with being a Dragon is that I never know how BIG a Dragon I'll grow to be.

I can't see too
well, Peter,
but I hear something in the tunnel ahead
of us.

Can you see anything?

My eyes are better than yours, Mole, --
-- give me the light and the sword!

There's a light!

AT THE LOGGING CAMP

We finally got out - Where are those Hornets?

There they are at the log pile.

Get 'em!

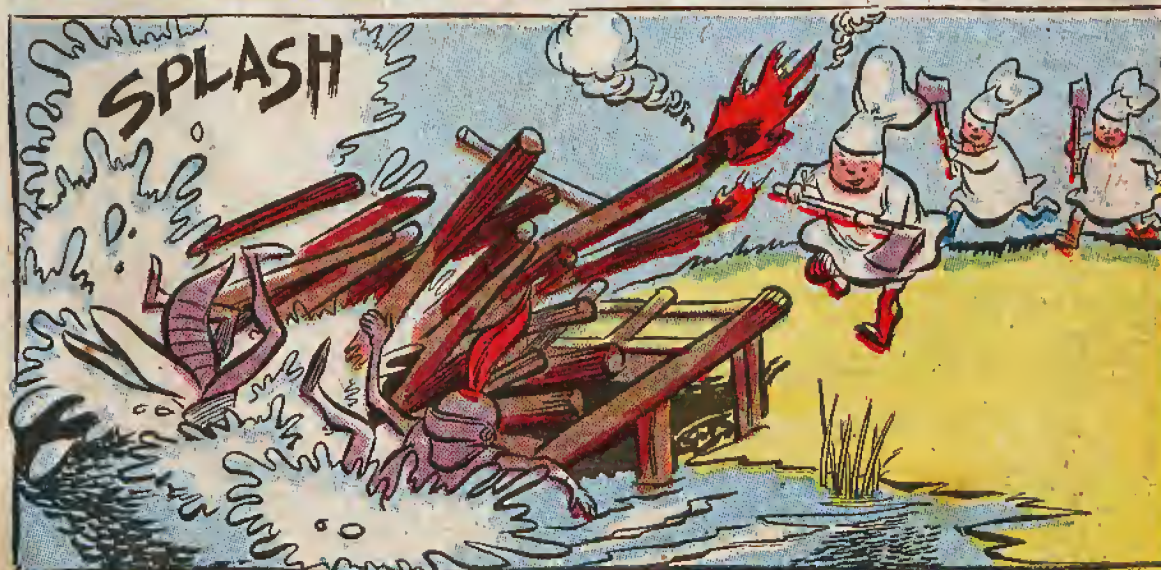

Here they come -- and we haven't got the blaze going good yet.

Run! Run!

You turned too fast --- You've made the log pile roll -- Look out!
